In looking over the football scores one notices that Cozad featured in the two largest scores of the season thus far. North Platte defeated Cozad 176 to 0. Last Friday Cozad walked on Farnam to the tune of 174 to 0. Where oh where, does that class Farnam?—Gothenburg Times.

A good, live band is one of the best "boosters" any town can have. Are you boosting for your home town band?—Hershey Times.

The Frontier Days which was to be put on here Wednesday and Thursday were postponed a day on account of the very bad weather. Late today, Thursday, we learn as we go to press late, that one of the riders was injured quite severely when he was thrown from a horse and stepped on by the animal. His wife was sent for, as he was quite bad, but now it is that he will come out of it first rate.—Wallace Winner.

STRANGE

To kill a coyote accidentally and also in self defense is an unusual occurrence, to say the least. Bob Jagger experienced such an accident the while he and Tige Towers were out hunting chickens. As the story goes Tige had frightened the animal from his lodging and looking the two hunters had decided to devour Bob, the smaller of the two, first. Bob was faced in an opposite direction and turning quickly discharged his No. 20 gauge shot gun, killing the wolf instantly.—Maxwell Telepost.

Honorable W. M. Stebbins of Gothenburg, who served in the legislature of 1911, 1913 and 1915, also the constitutional convention of 1920, is being strongly urged by his friends to file on the Republican ticket for State Treasurer. If Mr. Stebbins can be induced to enter the race, he will certainly be a very strong candidate, as he has a very wide acquaintance and is very favorably considered by reason of his splendid record in serving the public, which, with his high moral standing and long successful business experience, makes him eminently qualified for the highly responsible position.—Brady Vindicator.
